Greensboro, N. C., March 1, 1932.

The Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, Auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention, held its forty-second annual meeting in the First Baptist Church of Greensboro, March 1, 2, 3.

The session opened Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock with Rev. J. Clyde Turner, pastor of the church, presiding. "Faith of Our Fathers," and "Have Thine Own Way, Lord", were sung as the opening hymns. Scripture reading by Rev. Wilson Woodcock, pastor of Forest Avenue Church, Greensboro, using the passages Matthew 12:18-25 and II Philippians 5:1. Anthem, "O, Paradise," was rendered by the choir. Prayer by Rev. J. Lester Lane, pastor of the Asheboro Street Church, Greensboro.

The annual sermon was preached by Rev. Forrest C. Feezor, pastor of the Tabernacle Church, Raleigh, using for his text, Isaiah 42:.4 Hymn, "Jesus Shall Reign," was sung, after which the closing prayer was made by Rev. A. B. Conrad, Pastor First Church, High Point.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 2

The session was opened at ten o'clock with the president, Mrs. W. N. Jones, presiding, by singing our hymn for the year, "Jesus Shall Reign." The devotional was conducted by Mrs. A. Andrews, of Greensboro, reading Matthew 13:31-33, followed by prayer by Rev. C. T. Plybon, pastor Alexander Church, Forest City.

Mrs. Z. V. Mehaffey, of Bryson City, moved that the roll call be omitted, and that those whose registration cards have been turned in to the Secretary up to this time be recognized as constituting the organization. Motion carried.

Miss Lattie Rhodes, of Raleigh, moved that the program as arranged be adopted as the order of business. Motion carried.

Mrs. Jones recognized Dr. C. E. Maddry, Secretary of the Baptist State Convention. In a brief talk, Dr. Maddry asked that more churches send in contributions for missions monthly. Dr. Maddry thanked the W. M. U. for the $12,300.00 contributed last June in the Heck Memorial offering, which was appropriated to the Convention Debt, and asked that the organization help again the coming June. Dr. Maddry also urged that our people buy more bonds, the money for which will be applied on the Convention debt.

The address of welcome was made by Mrs. C. W. Moseley, of Greensboro. Mrs. H. B. Moore, of Gastonia, responded to this address.

Mrs. Jones announced the following committees:

land, Warsaw; Mrs. C. V. Brooks, Calypso; Mrs. H. M. Finch, Rocky Mount; Mrs. J. C. Hough, Kinston. Motion was carried that these be elected.

Report of Corresponding Secretary and Mission Study Superintendent, Mrs. Edna R. Harris. Report adopted.

REPORT OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARY AND MISSION STUDY LEADER

As this report of the year's work is brought to you I feel like calling it half told tales because there is so much done of which we had no report and from reports we had, much was given "by hint" which could not be compiled so if this report is different from what you thought it would be that is another illustration of half told tales.

Growth

We began 1931 with 2,628 active organizations. During the year we had a net gain of only twenty-three organizations, now having on our files 2,651. The half told tale here is that some four hundred organizations sent in their names as reorganized or new, and functioned in their own way; the literature was sent to them all the year, but they never told us anything and they sent no gift to missions, so we dropped them in revision of the mailing list. From the largest number of additions to the roll of societies being made the first quarter, and the largest number of reports sent in the first quarter, we are constrained to believe that many of these same ones come back each year; some think they will do something, but give up with the slightest discouragement, keeping their New Year's resolution but one quarter, growing careless, or forgetting that four times a year we ask for reports.

All praise be to those that have a complete tale to unfold and who carry the burden through the dark days as well as the glad days.

Our task for this year is to hold every organization, and to put forth our best efforts to arouse and interest the hundred thousand women and young people in churches which have no organization. What we might do is only half told when we have a missionary organization in less than half our churches.

Standard of Excellence

While we did not grow in numbers of organizations as we should; the number that made at least four points on the Standard of Excellence increased from 846 to 1,111 this year. And we had an increase of 29 in A-1 organizations having 294 this year. Mount Zion had the largest number of A-1 organizations, twenty-seven; but Beulah had the highest per cent, thirty-five per cent of all organizations reaching A-1, and fifty per cent of her W. M. S. being A-1. This is only a half told tale because we had reports on the Standard from only 1,232 organizations.

It is encouraging, however, that we had more Standard reports returned this year. We have ten full graded A-1 Unions this year: North Wilkesboro; West Asheville; Lenoir, First; Corinth (Chowan); Blackwell Memorial, Elizabeth City; Angier Avenue, Durham; Durham, First; Watts Street, Durham; Greensboro, First; and Siler City.

Gifts

The Woman's Missionary Society of Greensboro First led in gifts, with $9,482.56; followed by Winston-Salem First, $6,656.45; and Raleigh First with $6,437.47.

Piedmont led the Associations in gifts with $22,739.54; followed by Pilot Mountain, with $18,459.95; and Mt. Zion with $17,436.96.

Charlotte Division led the Divisions in gifts with $77,657.01; Greensboro, second, with $69,270.73.

The following Associations went beyond their apportionment this year despite depression: Alleghany, Beulah, Blue Ridge, Brushy Mountain, Caldwell, Carolina, Green River, Liberty, Three Forks, Yadkin.

Magazines

Subscriptions to the Y. W. A. magazine we feel is half the tale of a falling off in number of subscriptions to Royal Service since it no longer carries Y. W. A. programs; but it is not a good reason, for in a membership of 44,000 there should be far more than 6,759 women taking Royal Service. Nineteen thirty-two is Royal Service's twenty-fifth anniversary and if each society would set out to increase its subscription list twenty-five per cent it would be a worthy aim, and if we reached that aim for the State it would be a worthy celebration. Through reading missionary magazines we enlarge our vision of the world's need, and "knowledge grows to more and more," and gives the ability to see beyond ourselves and beyond the present, which makes life interesting and adds to its zest. Something needs to be brought into our lives that will reveal to us the power, the beauty and the greatness of life, and enable us to

"Feel through all this earthly dress
Bright spots of everlastingness"

To keep pace with the acts of the apostles of the twentieth century a missionary magazine is indispensable; and women who are informed are women interested.

Study

In our mission study there was a falling off of Record Cards and silver seals awarded; but an increase in Home and Foreign Certificates and gold seals indicates that many are continuing their study. Fewer classes were reported, too; but few leaders report a class when awards are not desired and many are studying missions that do not take the examinations and no report of the class is made to us—another half told tale. The Advanced Course was completed by Mrs. J. N. Rumble, High Point.

Prayer

We may not have had much money to give the past year, but there has been no cut or loss in the amount of time to spend; and if all of us would spend more time in prayer, our work would be more effective and we'd find we had more to give. Is "we have not the time" a reason for not observing the weeks of prayer set apart by our Union? As we have been driven from the mountain peaks of success, prosperity, luxurious and extravagant living to the valley of lost hopes, failures and depression, have they proven a "valley of vision" as perhaps was intended. Van Dyke, when asked why he chose "The Valley of Vision" for the title to a book said: "The mountain top is the place of outlook over the earth and sea; but it is in the valley of suffering, endurance and self-sacrifice that the deepest visions of the meaning of life come to us."

Down in the valley, now of endurance and self-sacrifice, may we give more time to prayer, and may we as we seek to go on—to climb new heights, say with Cook in "The Larger Stewardship":

"Stir me, oh stir me, Lord,
I care not how
But stir my heart in passion for the world!
Stir me to give, to go—
but most to pray."

Travel Tales

The 6,273 miles traveled tell a tale of 19 local meetings, 2 study classes, 15 conferences, 2 Divisions, 28 Associations, 76 talks, and attendance at W. M. U. meeting, Gastonia; Southern Baptist Convention in Birmington, Ala.; and Baptist State Convention, Winston-Salem. Report of the Secretary of Young People's Work, Miss Alva Lawrence. Adopted.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S REPORT

"The Bible gives two pictures of Palm Sunday" says Dr. James I. Vance, in his book 'The Field is the World'—"both coming from the pen of John, the beloved disciple. One is recorded in his Gospel and the other in Revelation. Both sound the note of victory. The first comes to us out of the past. It is the picture of Jesus on the streets of Jerusalem the day the crowd cheered and spread their garments in the way, stripping the branches from the palm trees and shouting: 'Hosanna: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord'.—(John 12:13.) It was a strange reception to give that weary man who for three years had been walking the way alone in the face of numerous and trying difficulties, for a brief hour the tide halts—and Jesus rode down the cheering lines, amid the waving palms, and had His day, His triumphal entry, His brief pantomime of power." In a very slight way we of the W. M. U. experience, after a year of toiling, a similar moment of triumph when the reports are all in and we come to give you a résumé—the result of the labors of counselors and leaders. Each year there are causes for rejoicing and for joining in the Hosannas of old, because efforts have been so wondrously rewarded.

One of the disappointments of the year is the dropping from our list of 340 young people's organizations. According to our custom those societies which send in no financial report for four consecutive quarters are dropped from the office list. Who wants to take the blame for this loss? Think of the host of young people who have had no one to lead them to catch even a glimpse of missionary vision. We challenge our W. M. S. members, and associational officers to work with us to prevent this dreadful leak in our ranks.

Yet our moment of triumph comes when we report 375 new organizations which show a net increase—and so at the close of the year '31 we claim: 568, S.B.'s; 471, G.A.'s; 252, R.A.'s; and 327, Y.W.A.'s; totaling, 1,618 W.M.U. young people's societies. Of this number 227 were A-1; 119 class B; 115 class C; 156 class D; total standard societies, 617. This far exceeds 1930's report. We hope this proves that we are growing more proficient in our Lord's work.

What of mission study efforts? According to our records 3,485 certificates and 6,076 seals are visible results and yet many more individuals than these figures imply have "listened in" and been inspired by the study of our mission fields.

A glimpse of triumph is caught also in the summing up of gifts for the year. Three organizations show an increase of gifts over the previous year. You agree, I am sure, that in face of 1931 facts this bit of news should be sent to Ripley for his "Believe it or Not" items. S.B., and R.A.'s and G.A.'s show a small yet appreciable increase. The Y.W.A.'s gave $16,349.10; G.A.'s, $7,194.36; R.A.'s, $4,182.72; and S.B.'s $5,756,18; totaling $33,482.36. How can we teach stewardship of possessions to our young people? We especially appeal to our Stewardship Chairmen. Mrs. G. R. Martin, of Virginia, our Southern Stewardship Chairman, advocates that these reinforce the efforts of young people's directors and counselors in enlisting young people to participate in the Stewardship Declamation Contest. This Scripture and other teaching on giving will make an indelible impression. Such a study will bring forth abundant gifts into God's storehouse. The response to the Contest for 1931 has been comparatively small, only a few Associations have entered, however, each of the five Divisions sent representatives to our State Contest. The winners for the State are: Sunbeams—tied, Ann Lewis, Proctorville, Mary Helen Caldwell, Forest City; Junior, Carolina Stillwell, Cullowhee; Intermediate, Plummer Shearin, Essex; Y. W. A., Louise Watkins, Rockingham. Congratulations to these fine young people and their faithful leaders.

Our W.M.S. presidents may help also in this matter of gifts by setting a financial goal for each young people's society. As soon as the Associational Superintendent sends your church quota, please divide the amount among all missionary societies, thereby helping the young folks to have a definite part in Kingdom work.

Since 1932 marks the twenty-fifth anniversary of Young Woman's Auxiliary may we covenant together to make it a year long to be remembered as we strive toward the worth while goals—one-fourth increase in membership, organizations and gifts, our committee has set for us. Next year shall we not come back to this Bethel of annual meeting with 400 Y. W. A.'s with gifts amounting to $20,000.00 for missions. It can be done if we go forth in His name "conquering and to conquer."

The Guide Book which was bought from the Virginia W. M. U. for directors and leaders has taken well in our State. The suggestions, plans, and programs found there have helped to promote the work. The W. M. U. director helps in the matter of A-1 graded W. M. U.'s. Were all five of your W. M. U. societies A-1? Why not? A good director would discover the trouble and produce the remedy.

The W. M. U. Young People's page in Recorder has listed names of girls from time to time who have ranked as Queen. This is the highest honor awarded Girls' Auxiliary and represents much research and memory work. Our record is incomplete and space is also limited so names are omitted in this report.

Because of the success of the 1930 State G. A. House Party, we decided to enlarge our efforts and have three such programs for 1931. Mars Hill, Chowan and Meredith were the meeting places chosen. Again we can report that these were self-supporting, it being our purpose to incur no expense on the State Convention. Miss Pearle Bourne of Birmingham, Ala., and Miss Pearle Johnson of Shanghai, China, were the principal speakers. One hundred forty-five girls and leaders were reached and helped by these conferences on G. A. work.

More glimpses of triumph are noted. Ridgecrest Y. W. A. Camp, as usual, seemed to be the best yet. The classes, teachers and speakers were excellent. No feature of our State or South-wide work offers a more helpful and far-reaching program for young people. North Carolina passed her State goal and had seventy-five young women in attendance besides visiting girls for the week-end from nearby cities.

Our College Y. W. A. work is encouraging. Miss Pearle Bourne, Associate Young People's leader from Birmingham, and I visited seven of the nine organizations early in the fall, finding a spirit of interest and co-operation. Our student religious activities offer perhaps the most challenging opportunity of the day. We must help to train them for the church during those four years, when they are advancing in other regards else the Kingdom work will lack trained leaders tomorrow. If your society happens to be near a college town, will you not offer your services and lead these young people to a closer walk with God?

Again, I repeat this is a report of your labors. I wish to express to you my sincerest appreciation for your good work and to wish further that 1932 may bring a clearer vision of victory as you lead these young people, for the second picture of which Dr. Vance tells, comes to us out of the future. It is a scene that is to take place in the streets of the new Jerusalem. It represents Jesus at the Gate which leads to the throne. "Then multitudes no man can number will gather out of every nation and clothed in white and waving palms. Again, they shall stand before the throne cheering Christ and saying: 'Salvation unto our God who sitteth on the throne, and unto the Lamb.'" This is the culmination of all the missionary effort of the world. Let us pray for this vision of victory and strength to labor until that perfect day.

Respectfully submitted,

ALVA LAWRENCE,
Young People's Leader.

The banner offered to the Association having the largest per cent of its members contributing $1.00 to the Heck Memorial Offering, went to the Blue Ridge Association, which gave $2.81 per member. The banner was presented by Mrs. Edna R. Harris, and accepted by Mrs. J. L. Morgan, Marion, Superintendent of this Association.

REPORT OF HECK MEMORIAL OFFERING

A year ago by vote of this body, we decided to apply our 1931 Heck Memorial Offering "as a gift in payment, on the Convention debt in Miss Heck's name" and to ask each society to take as its objective $1.00 per member; and that a banner be given to the Association averaging the largest per cent of members of societies reaching this goal, and an Honor Roll be kept of organizations that gave $1.00 per member. Each Association and each organization at once knew its goal. Some took it seriously and at once began to work toward reaching the goal. This was a contest when each one could be on the Honor Roll, but it was not reached without work.

With a membership of fifty thousand and more, very few, comparatively, gave their dollar. Instead of fifty thousand dollars which was our goal, we turned over $12,387.53 to Dr. Maddry. That proportion bears out the usual per cent of Southern Baptists who carry the load—one-fourth.

The Honor Roll of societies that gave one dollar per member is as follows:

One fine thing about this was that the small church and small Association had the same chance as the large ones.

Central Association, Mrs. John O. Gough, Superintendent, deserves honorable mention, having averaged one dollar fifty-seven cents per member. The largest gift was $500.00 from Mrs. Livingston Johnson.

To an Association composed largely of rural churches, and not a large church in it, goes the banner, whose members averaged $2.81 cents per member—Blue Ridge, Mrs. J. L. Morgan, Superintendent.

The secretary was asked to send a telegram to Mrs. Livingston Johnson, of Raleigh, in appreciation of her love and sympathy for this organization, and for the flowers sent by her to the meeting. Hymn, "Hark Ten Thousand Harps and Voices," was sung.

Annual address of the President, Mrs. W. N. Jones—subject, "He Shall Reign." Solo, "For Christ Shall Reign" by Mrs. H. E. Armstrong, of Greensboro.

"HE SHALL REIGN"

In our motto for the year we find not only the heart of the gospel but the incentive of all of our missionary service.

Mrs. Cox, the President of our Union, in the Year Book for 1932, says "It is significant that to a woman came the announcement of the ultimate, triumphant, victorious completion of the missionary purpose.

When the angel Gabriel appeared to Mary to announce the coming of the world Redeemer, he said 'He shall reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of His kingdom there shall be no end', His kingdom shall know no boundaries, no frontiers, no end, but shall be extended farther and farther out until there comes a day when His glory shall cover the earth as the waters cover the sea''.

To a woman also came the glad message of the resurrection—''He is not here, for He is risen. Go quickly and tell his disciples'', and down through the centuries the feet of women have been swift to go, and woman's lips ever ready to carry the message of the ruling, reigning Christ.

These two great fundamental things are the basis of all of our woman's work for missions—the absolute assurance of the ultimate triumph of the Kingdom of God on earth, and the firm conviction that God has called the womanhood of the world to share in this triumph.

From the beginning of our organization the interest of the women centered in the work of Foreign Missions. Relative to this Mrs. Helen Barrett Montgomery, whose service in our day and generation to the cause of missions has been outstanding, says, ''A hundred years ago when the country was very poor and women had no check books and very little money they founded 'Female Cent Societies' and forwarded the few pennies they could save from the egg money and from the rag money and the butter, which they were allowed to have by their kind husbands, almost always to Foreign Lands for the salvation of the heathen. We are told that interest depends on information, but I am inclined to believe that their interest had a deeper, that is, a higher source. Their interest depended on their keen sense of the immeasurable value of Christ to the entire world. Despite the laughter of cynics these little bands of women continued to meet in the bare unlovely rooms of empty churches and to pray and to sew and to read letters from these unknown missionary friends whom their money had sent out into the waiting heathen world. They never called it non-Christian, and they were unconscious of any patronage on their part in calling it heathen, for non-Christian was not in the Bible and the heathen were, and they derived their interest in them from the worn pages of that New Testament Scripture that they knew so well.

Beginning with this little trickle of organization, the Womans' Missionary Society organizations have steadily deepened and widened until they have become a mighty river, waters to swim in, waters that could not be passed over, and wherever the river has gone it has transformed deserts of human life into smiling gardens of God.

There are today in the United States about fifty national womans' boards of Foreign Missions whose membership includes millions of Protestant church members, whose treasuries also count their funds by the million, whose missionaries are found in every land under the shining sun, whose colleges and hospitals and kindergartens and agricultural missions form a great fellowship of blessing, love of which has gone throughout the world, and blessings of which extend to the remotest corners of the earth.''

Few of the women in our churches realize the magnitude of the work in which we are engaged, fewer still perhaps are aware of the large part it is playing in the missionary activities of the church as a whole. Whereas in the early days we had to fight to win recognition, to be allowed to have a part in this world conquest, today we must fight that the entire burden of missionary activity be not laid on our shoulders. Many churches are not only willing but glad for the women in their membership to assume responsibility for all mission gifts, provided that the church be allowed to forward the gifts to the State Headquarters as the contribution from the church.

''Jesus Shall Reign'' is the promise. Let us see how it is being fulfilled today when there is dire distress in so many parts of the world, and one problem of international interest has scarcely been solved, even inadequately, before a dozen others arise to take its place. A third of the twentieth century is nearly gone, what is the situation we face in our own land and on our mission fields? After a period of unprecedented prosperity there have come financial disasters that have impoverished our people until we are confronted with conditions that are entirely new to the present generation, and that have been paralleled only by the depression arising after the War between the States. In spite of this our women are giving sacrificially, and are willing to spend and be spent that ''Jesus shall reign''.

In addition to our economic problems there seems to be no question but that the liquor question must be faced again, and by a generation of young people who have grown to maturity since the closing of the saloons, and know nothing by experience of conditions before the passing of the Eighteenth Amendment. Millions of people in this and other countries are without work presenting a problem that is baffling the wisdom of the wisest statesmen. The migrants who go from one community to another, oftentimes with little children, demand the best thought of Christian people in order that we may meet their need and assure to these children a fair opportunity in life.

That there is a growing lawlessness in our cities can not be questioned. Communism, not satisfied with its effort to make a Godless nation of Russia, is at work in our country, trying to get an entrance through our schools and colleges, and even daring to march an army and to make incendiary speeches in the capital of the nation.

In the missionary organizations of all denominations there is a marked decrease in contributions to mission causes. In our State, our gifts to denominational causes have declined from $1,115,000 in 1920 to $629,465.21 the past year. In our Woman's Missionary Union organization our contributions have decreased from $345,000 in our Ruby Anniversary year 1928, to $221,000. In contrast to this on our mission fields we find steadily increasing gifts.

Looking to the fields, we find Europe torn by jealousy and suspicion with strained international relations. Spain has become a republic and proclaimed religious liberty for her people. What this will mean, time only will tell. Great Britain is apparently no nearer solving the problem of self-government for India, notwithstanding Gandhi's visit to England and his spectacular appeal. Russia has 40,000,000 people without religious teaching or preaching. A nation setting itself to the task of destroying the name of God is a menace to the world. In China there is still a civil war that seems to know no end. Floods, famines and banditry follow in the wake of the armies. In addition to this there is a conflict with Japan that assumes more serious proportions daily. The past year in Latin American countries has been marked by revolutions and there have been changes in government in Cuba, Brazil, Chile, Argentina, Peru, Colombia and Venezuela. "Africa is still the dark continent with a million square miles of territory unevangelized and millions in Africa in utter darkness or brought into contact only with Godless Europeans". Here the Mohammedans are propagating their faith with more zeal apparently than the followers of Christ. There are only a few Christian missionaries in Turkey. The condition of the women has greatly improved under the new government, but it is forbidden to give religious instruction to minors.

But that these facts should give the impression that the reign of Christ is far in the future let us recall briefly some of the constructive things that have been accomplished in His name, and that promise much for the coming of His Kingdom. The first, that there has been established a Chinese National Church, a Christian Church in China, and that there is a movement for what we would call Home Mission work, on the part of the native Christians, an effort to evangelize their own people. It is true that we have lost in recent years some of our eight thousand foreign missionaries, but it is estimated that one in every thousand persons in China is a Christian. There are six Christian Universities with native Christian presidents. The Bible has been translated in the language of the people, a simplified language that is used throughout the country and will enable millions hitherto illiterate to read for themselves the Word of God. A number of the leading men are avowed Christians and there is a National Christian Council composed of leading Chinese men and missionaries. Amid all the turmoil and strife of these past years, in spite of war, suffering, persecution and dire poverty, many of the native Christians are standing true to their faith, and out of all these present experiences there will come a Christian Church in China that will ultimately bring about the reign of Christ in that great land.

Mission work in India is a matter of general interest today because of two men—the remarkable life and influence of Gandhi and the far-reaching work of Rev. E. Stanley Jones, the outstanding missionary in that vast empire. A few years ago this man with most unusual power spoke in our State. He declined the honor of being made a bishop in his church, the Methodist, preferring to return to his work in India where he has had marvellous success in winning men to Christ. His books have made India known in America as never before. In a recent statement he said "It will be Christ who will save God to India. The gods will go, but God will remain and it will be a Christlike God who will remain, for a Christlike God will stand the strain." India averages four thousand converts a month now and more than four millions of people are listed in the government census as Christians. What a marvelous record when we recall the years of waiting for a single convert of the pioneer missionaries William Carey and Adoniram Judson.

Mr. Gandhi is not a Christian but in his life he exemplifies many Christian virtues and while he seems to our Western minds impractical and inconsistent, no man of this generation has wielded a greater influence and the term Christlike is frequently used in reference to him. Someone has said Christ is in the thinking of India today as in no other non-Christian land. If that is true, it is largely because of these two men.

The Kingdom of God movement in Japan under the leadership of Dr. Kagawa with its objective the winning of a million souls to Christ in three years, has been much in the public mind the past year. Dr. Kagawa tries to put into practice the principles of Jesus in every phase of life and on a recent visit to New York stated his conviction that the present day is the greatest crisis in the world's history and that if all who professed faith in Christ should at this time put Him first, we would bring in His reign on earth—and saying, "We must take Christ and His program seriously and put His principles into practice if we would win the battle against communism and against atheism, against sin and selfishness". The Kingdom of God movement has not resulted in one million converts, but in fifty thousand, and eight hundred Japanese churches gained eight hundred additional members last year, but it is admitted that Christianity has a far wider influence in Japan than the Church membership and numbers of churches would indicate, and the nation is more open to Christian teaching than ever before. It makes a step forward that Christianity is recognized as one of the religions of the country. Dr. Kagawa believes and teaches that "the solution to Japan's problem is a spiritual one and is to be found in Christ the 'World Redeemer' ".

The Dark Continent was opened by missionary endeavor and today the greatest civilizing agency in that vast territory is the work of the missionaries. The trail of the Moffats, the Livingstons, of Casalis, Alexander Mackay, the Coillards and Mary Slessor of Calabar is deeply marked in the life of the land. From an unknown country, peopled by strange men and animals, Africa has become a great continent with railroad and airplane routes and a commerce that attracts the nations of the world. There are one hundred Protestant missionary societies at work in this country and the number of Christian converts runs into the millions. The story of African missions is darkened by the story of the things that contact with Christian nations has brought to this people, the cruel slave trade, the rum traffic and other oppressions. Yet as we hear of great mass movements where whole tribes turn to the Christian religion, and read of the vast crowds that throng the primitive church buildings to worship, pouring out their hearts in songs of praise, we lift our hearts in thankfulness that the light of the world is shining in the darkness of the Dark Continent.

There has been manifested in South America the past year a new interest in evangelism. The gospel message has been received and received gladly as never before. This country with its beautiful coast cities, some of the most beautiful in all the world, with its vast interior populated by a primitive and underprivileged people, presents a greater contrast than can be found anywhere else. A large part of its seventy million inhabitants must be numbered with the backward people of the world. Large numbers of Indians roam the interior regions untouched by gospel effort of any kind. The Bible is still an unknown book to many and there are vast areas in which the gospel has never been preached. In Brazil alone there are at the present time a million evangelical Christians. Our Baptist people there number fifty thousand. The seed has been sown. In due time God will give the increase.

Dr. Charles Jefferson after a recent world's journey summed up his impressions in these words, "I came home with a renewed faith in the ultimate victory of the missionary enterprise. I am more certain than ever before that the principles of Jesus Christ are to permeate and dominate the life of the world. The Christian spirit is abroad working miracles beyond the frontier of organized Christianity. Our missionaries are doing a work we can not see or measure. They are putting in the leaven—they are putting it in at ten thousand different points. The leaven is at work, some day the whole world will be leavened."

In view of the facts brought out in this brief summary of the situation on a few of our mission fields, may we not ask, is it time to retrench, to call in our forces, to lessen our efforts? Are we to go back to the wilderness, when we stand on the border of the promised land, because we lack faith to go and possess the world for our Christ? "Jesus Shall Reign," "He is faithful that hath promised."

When the children of Israel had been delivered from the Egyptians and the Red Sea waters had been miraculously held back so that they might pass dry shod, Moses sang a song of praise and thanksgiving for this marvellous deliverance, and in that song we find the first recorded promise that Jesus shall rule and reign, "The Lord shall reign forever and forever." Victory comes always from God. To Him we must look for deliverance from the difficulties, the hindrances, the discouragements that come to all of us in our efforts to serve Him. Another wonderful promise came from God at a time when the chosen people had taxed His patience to the limit. It was when the people, discouraged and weary from their wanderings in the wilderness, fearing what might await them in the land to which they had journeyed so long, listened to the report of the ten spies, forgetting all the revelations that God had given them of His might and power, His promise to bring them to the land that He gave to their forefathers, and refused to go and possess it as an inheritance forever. God in His righteous indignation would have blotted them out as a nation but in answer to Moses intercession said, "I have pardoned according to thy word." "But as truly as I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the Lord." Israel, by unbelief prevented God from blessing His people as He intended. We may well ask the question, Have we in our blind unbelief interfered with His plans for the redemption of the world? Has our generation failed to let Him use us as He would have, had we a larger faith, a greater devotion and a fuller consecration to His service?

Whatever disappointments may come, regardless of how far we fall short of our ideals and expectations, if the obstacles in our mission work seem as impassable as the Red Sea seemed to the children of Israel, if doors that we thought open should close forever, if our missionaries should have to be recalled and some of our fields abandoned, let us take new courage. "The Kingdom is coming." "The Kingdoms of this world are becoming the Kingdoms of our Lord and His Christ and He shall reign forever and forever."

And then we would recall those verses in the revelation to John on the Isle of Patmos, those verses that lift the veil and give us a glimpse of the ultimate glory of the Kingdom of God and the blessedness of those that enter into that city prepared for those who love and serve Him here. "And there shall be no night there, and they need no candle, neither light of the sun, for the Lord God giveth them light and they shall reign forever."

We miss some of our number as we gather in this annual meeting. For them the day has ended and they rest from their labors. Shall not we who remain, while yet it is day, consecrate ourselves anew to our great task? God has brought us to another year of service, to larger opportunities and greater possibilities we trust. Let us determine that we will put Him first, that in all things He may have the preëminence and that we may so serve as to glorify Him, and that His name may be manifested among all the nations of the earth, and that

> "Jesus shall reign where e'er the sun
> Does his successive journeys run;
> His Kingdom spread from shore to shore
> 'Till moons shall wax and wane no more."

Address: "The Christian Crusade of the Twentieth Century—World Peace"—Mrs. Taul White, Chapel Hill. Song,

"Where He Leads Me I Will Follow." Closing prayer, Rev. J. Clyde Turner, Greensboro.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, MARCH 2

The session, with Mrs. R. N. Simms, Vice-President, of Raleigh, presiding, was opened by singing, "The Kingdom is Coming." The devotional was led by Mrs. R. L. Wilburn, of Roxboro, reading a part of the seventh chapter of Daniel followed by prayer. Minutes of morning session read and approved.

Enrollment to this time—delegates, 516; visitors, 339. Total, 855.

Reports of Division Superintendents were read and adopted.

REPORT OF THE ASHEVILLE DIVISION

In the preface of his book, "In the Vanguard of a Race," L. H. Hammond says, "Perhaps the most striking feature of this book is what is not in it." So in The Asheville Division this past year we missed our mark in so many places, this report may be more conspicuous for what is not than what is in it. Yet, in His infinite wisdom God has blessed us more than we deserve for which we are grateful—immeasurably grateful. With Paul we are ready to say, "Let us go again . . . to where we have preached the Word of the Lord . . . and see how they do." Too, like Paul, we have a consuming desire to finish the work that has been committed to us.

Our Annual Meeting held in Waynesville in June was unusually well attended and our Lord blessed us by sending to us a veritable banquet of love and inspiration, in our greatly loved Southwide Secretary, Miss Mallory; Mrs. R. L. Harris, Tennessee's State W. M. U. President; and Miss Pearle Johnson, our Missionary furloughing from China, and now in China again. Each of these spoke in her own attractive manner, and we felt that it was well pleasing unto the Master that our Division should have been so enriched by these inspired speakers.

During the year, our Associations received some very fine help from our Missionaries. Miss Pearle Johnson, Mrs. Whisenhunt, and Mrs. P. W. Hamlett rendered invaluable aid, by visiting and speaking in Association meetings, for which we are indeed thankful.

The Superintendent visited more associational meetings this year than ever before, having traveled more than eleven hundred miles to these alone.

Some of the Associations did better work the past year than at any time in their history. The Blue Ridge made all points on the Standard of Excellence, and the Buncombe all points except the reaching of her apportionment. The Buncombe led in the number of new societies organized, as well as in the number of study classes and seals, the greatest number of certificates going to the Blue Ridge Association.

Mitchell Association, led by Mrs. S. J. Black, reports the largest percentage of her membership tithing—thirty-four per cent of her members being tithers. Worthy, you will say, of our emulation. Buncombe Association has six churches with societies of all five grades; the Haywood two, and the Three Forks, the Yancey, and the French Broad one each.

Apportionments were reached by the Carolina, Three Forks, Blue Ridge and Alleghaney Associations.

Three Forks Association supports a native worker in Wusih, China, and Blue Ridge, under the leadership of Mrs. J. L. Morgan, also supports a Chinese native worker.

Margaret Fund students at Meredith College were made glad by two boxes sent from the Blue Ridge Association.

Western North Carolina, Haywood, Transylvania, Carolina, and Tennessee River Associations gave showers to the North Carolina Baptist Hospital.

The Haywood, Yancey and Tennessee River each sent jellies, and chicken money for Easter and Thanksgiving to the Louisville Training School.

During the summer a G. A. encampment under the management of the Carolina W. M. U. of which Mrs. C. R. Staggs is the new Superintendent, was held at Fruitland Institute. Miss Alva Lawrence visited this and taught classes, etc. Much good will no doubt result. Mars Hill College in the French Broad Association, sponsored a week-end house party for G. A.'s, Miss Pearle Bourne, of Birmingham, directing.

Personal Service in behalf of Sylva Collegiate Institute by the Tuckaseigee W. M. U. is outstanding, as are her Quarterly Meetings held in different parts of the county carrying spiritual missionary programs to remote churches.

Stewardship and Mission Study Rallies have been stressed in some organizations. Mrs. Pennell of the Buncombe, assisted by Miss Lawrence and her Young Peoples' Leader, Miss Starnes, conducted a county-wide Mission Study Course for young people and their leaders. Sixty-two took the final examinations.

The Blue Ridge Association was 100% in her fourth quarter's report and Lottie Moon Christmas Offering. This Association has specialized in mission study this year. The Blue Ridge had every society on the Heck Memorial Honor Roll, and received the special Heck Memorial Banner.

The Young Peoples' Stewardship Contest received marked interest in some of our Associations. The Superintendent feels that same has been of inestimable value to parents, leaders and children, as a teacher of stewardship. From the tiniest Sunbeam up to and including College Presidents a great many have manifested interest. Homes which never thought nor heard of stewardship have received a worthy leavening as young people have brought it in literature furnished them and dug it from the Bible. One home received its first Bible for this study.

We would remember all our faithful workers, and thankfully say with Oliver Wendell Holmes:

"Our prayers accept, our sins forgive;
Our youthful zeal renew;
Shape for us holier lives to live,
And nobler work to do."

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. R. MORGAN,
Division Superintendent.

REPORT OF CHARLOTTE DIVISION

It is a sacred privilege, when sorrow has touched the Charlotte Division, to attempt to bring a report of our year's work. It is difficult in the brief space of our reports to record the many sacrifices that have been made by the members during this unusual year.

The outstanding event of the year was the Annual Meeting of our Division held at Wingate in June. The attendance was large. This meeting will go down in the history of our Division as a sacred memory, not only for the inspiration brought by the messages brought to us by Mr. Jacob Gartenhaus of the Home Mission Board, but Dr. and Mrs. S. L. Watson thrilled all present as they brought to us the needs of Brazil. The pageant, so ably presented by the young people of Wingate, made a lasting impression on all present. The attendance was unusually fine and the reports from the various Associations showed advancement along all lines except in gifts.

The Division was subdivided into four smaller Divisions, consisting of five Associations each, that the work might be followed up and the weaker Associations might be strengthened by the stronger ones, and in this way aid the leader in keeping in closer touch with each Association of this large Division.

As usual, the meeting was characterized by love and enthusiasm. The spirituality and deep consecration of the leader was reflected in the meeting and her last earthly message of love and her desire that we go forward in the Master's work comes to us this morning from the very gates of heaven.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. J. RODDICK,
Assistant Superintendent Division.

REPORT OF ELIZABETH CITY DIVISION

With a perseverance and undaunted faith, our Associational presidents, County leaders, presidents and members of the local societies have pressed on through another year, with a record we are glad to report.

Mrs. C. R. Lincoln, of Morehead City, the new Superintendent of the Atlantic, has 24 churches with a total of 45 societies, organizing 15 during the year. They have three groups, all meeting quarterly. The Association made nine points. Their slogan for the year is "Missionary Education for Our Young People."

Mrs. J. L. Carrick, of Chowan, reports 64 churches with 140 societies, 11 of which have five grades. They have organized 15 during the year. They conducted a camp at Chowan College for all organizations, which was largely attended. This Association has six groups, meeting annually and semi-annually.

Mrs. T. E. Beasley, of the West Chowan, has 57 churches with 156 societies, eight of which have five grades. They continue to support Miss Pearle Johnson and also a Bible woman in China. They, too, had a summer camp at Chowan College for all organizations and a Stewardship Rally. They have three great groups meeting quarterly.

Mrs. J. C. Hough, of the Neuse, has organized her Association into three groups and all meet quarterly. They report 102 Tithers and lacked but a few hundred of meeting their goal. They report an increasing number of enlisted women. This Association had two schools of missions, the first of which was held in Goldsboro and the second at the Kennedy Home.

The great Roanoke, under the leadership of our faithful Mrs. E. B. Beasley, has 70 churches with 158 organizations, five live County Unions, most of them meeting quarterly. This Association made nine points on the Standard.

There is an increasing number of tithers throughout the Division. Personal service finds expression in every form of activity. Our women are studying missions. More are heeding the call of stewardship.

Our aim for this year is that every church will have its full quota of Young People's organizations, and that every member of our Union will remember that the tithe is the Lord's that every woman will catch the vision of her creation: "Created in Christ Jesus unto good works", created to obey the commandments of God, created to tell the story at home and abroad, created to teach the children in the way they should go, created to be stewards of the Gospel, created to live the abundant life in Christ Jesus.

Our Division Tithing contest was held in Windsor and the meeting of the Division will be held in Rocky Mount, March 29.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. H. M. FINCH,
Division Superintendent.

REPORT OF GREENSBORO DIVISION

We thank the "Giver of every good and perfect gift" for His guidance and blessings during the past year. To Him belongs all honor and praise for the work that has been done by our faithful Associational Superintendents.

The Annual meeting of the Greensboro Division was held in the First Baptist Church, Sanford, May 7, 1931. The attendance was excellent, and the reports showed progress and deep interest in the work. It was a pleasure to have with us Miss Pearle Johnson, missionary to China, who spoke to us on her work there. Mrs. Edna R. Harris, gave us a most practical and inspirational message. Mrs. D. W. Herring, returned missionary from China, conducted the afternoon devotional. The Minnie Marshall Buck Memorial banner was presented to the Piedmont Association for having the largest number of awards in mission study. It was accepted by Mrs. J. N. Rumble, mission study leader of Piedmont and later she gave a talk on the Advanced Mission Study Course.

This Divisional meeting was the first that had been held in Sandy Creek Association, and the ladies co-operated in every way to make it successful, and I must include the pastor who helped. A goodly number of pastors of the different churches were also there.

It was a privilege and pleasure to attend the eight Associations of the Division. There was a large attendance at these meetings and good reports of the work in the different churches. Some of these reports came from churches that were not listed in our Minutes. I wondered why? There is only one answer,—they had not sent their reports and Standard of Excellence blank filled out to Miss Elsie K. Hunter, Raleigh, who just loves to get these reports on time. When they do this we will have more active organizations than we now have. Perhaps its easier to talk than fill in report blanks, especially the Standard of Excellence.

The Division has a membership in all organizations of 8,564; number of tithers 1,321. Most of the societies (W. M. S.) co-operated in the stewardship campaign.

We have six Bible women in China, supported by the following churches: Mt. Zion—Chapel Hill has three; Grace, Durham, one; Tar River—First Church, Henderson one, and Warrenton, one.

Beulah Association had a camp for Girls' Auxiliary, Tar River, a camp for Young Woman's Auxiliary and Girls' Auxiliary; also held a W. M. U. conference in three group centers, Mrs. Edna R. Harris and Miss Alva Lawrence assisting Miss Harper, Superintendent.

Mt. Zion held a Rally Day at Yates church, for all the young people's organizations of the Association, which was well attended and enjoyed.

The number of girls of our Girls' Auxiliaries to win the rank of Queen is eighteen: Piedmont—Asheboro, two; Mt. Zion—Mebane, three; Raleigh—Tabernacle, four; Flat River—Oxford, nine.

The number of Royal Ambassadors to win the rank of Ambassador is two from Oxford, Flat River Association.

Our mission study report from Mrs. D. A. Kearns, Mission Study Leader for the Division, is as follows: Classes, 263; enrolled, 787; seals, 2,466; certificates, 333; Record Cards No. 1, 104; Record Cards No 2, 88; Reading Cards, 192; Reading Stamps, 242; official seals, 14; Advanced seals, 4.

I want to tell you of a mission study class in Piedmont Association held in the First Baptist Church, Greensboro, the subject was,—"Palestine in the Light of Prophecy, Past, Present and Future." The outline was made and taught by Mrs. Nettie Hoge, the Superintendent of the Association; one hundred forty enrolled, other denominations joining in.

New organizations for the Division—ninety-six, thirteen for the Woman's Missionary Society and eighty-three for young people's organizations,—the largest number since our Ruby Anniversary, 1928.

The number of A-1 Standard Graded Unions is five: Piedmont—First Church, Greensboro; Sandy Creek—First Church, Siler City; Mt. Zion—First Church, Durham; Watts Street, Durham and Angier Avenue, Durham. Beulah Association, Mrs. R. L. Wilburn, Superintendent, reached all points on the Standard of Excellence for Associations. Mrs. Wilburn is doing splendid work in her Association as the Minutes will show.

Seven of the eight Associations have the group plan, we hope soon to have all using this plan.

Mrs. Hoge, Superintendent of Piedmont, gives the best report of group leaders, the meetings are well attended, and great interest and spirituality is shown in their meetings.

This report shows nothing of the prayers, long miles traveled and letters written of our loyal and faithful Superintendents and their co-workers,—they have made our report what it is. Their reward will be when "Jesus Shall Reign" over all the earth in His glory.

The Greensboro Division will hold its annual meeting in the First Baptist Church, Siler City, May 5, 1932.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. M. WHITTED,
Division Superintendent.

REPORT OF WILMINGTON DIVISION

The Psalmist said, "For thou, Lord, hast made me glad through thy work; I will triumph in the works of Thy hands."

The women of the Wilmington Division have shown the spirit of gladness through their work for the Master, through prayer, personal service and mission study, their vision is enlarged, and though we have failed to reach our financial goal, there has been much sacrificial giving.

Loyal support has been given to the Co-operative Program by every Association, while the W. M. U. special offerings have been dear to our hearts, and were a deep expression of love for Him who first loved us and gave His life for us.

Each Superintendent reported problems, but sounded notes of encouragement.

Bladen Association, with Mrs. C. R. Jordan, Superintendent, reports 346 members and 122 tithers, the largest per cent of tithers for membership reported, they have 23 societies.

Mrs. B. R. Page is putting her best efforts into the development of Brunswick Association, and reports 239 members of the 29 societies, and have increased in mission study.

Burnt Swamp was admitted into the Union last year at Gastonia, and under the leadership of Mrs. M. C. Lunsford has made wonderful progress. They made 8 points on Standard of Excellence, five A-1 societies. In the 24 churches they have 29 societies, 15 W.M.S., 1 Y.W.A., 5 G.A., and 8 Sunbeam Bands; total membership 518. Eighteen societies were organized in 1931, had 28 mission study classes. Their financial aim was $160.00, they paid $136.28, have 9 tithers. With such wonderful report for first year, we see bright prospects for great advance in the future.

Mrs. J. T. McKenzie is still faithfully leading Cape Fear-Columbus, reports 28 societies with membership of 404.

The Eastern, still led by Miss Macy Cox, rejoices to continue the support of Miss Katie Murray and a kindergarten school of China. Three societies sent Christmas boxes to frontier missionaries. At their annual meeting in August they gave a white shower of three hundred towels and thirty pillow cases to the Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem. They have 87 societies; membership 1,535, and have increased number of tithers. Nine churches have five grades of work.

Johnston, is going forward under the leadership of Mrs. Geo. Lovell. They have 46 societies with 945 members, have trebled their number of tithers, and made great increase in mission study, made gifts to Margaret Fund student.

Mrs. Paul Bradley is putting her best into the work in Little River Association, they have 33 societies, 625 members and give scholarship to Training School.

New South River is a large Association and a tremendous task, under the leadership of Mrs. J. L. Olive, who bravely faces the difficulties and rejoices over the prospects of developing the work. She reports 27 societies and 434 members.

Mrs. T. S. Teague rendered faithful service in the Robeson Association two years and resigned in 1931 leaving the work in most favorable condition, and Mrs. Fulton O. Floyd is efficiently serving temporarily. They lead in number of societies, 111, with 1,668 members. They lead in mission study classes, 65. They had a stewardship rally in which 8 churches participated, resulting in four winners in the stewardship declamation contest. One Sunbeam leader last year supported a young Chinese woman in Training School in China. Robeson Association was presented the Divisional Banner last year for having largest number churches in 1930 with five grades of work.

Mrs. J. W. Carroll has steadily led the Wilmington Association forward three years. They have 56 societies with 721 members; lead in number tithers, 260; and give scholarship to W. M. U. Training School. They sent full outfits of clothing, and a substantial purse to a pastor and family in our own State. The pastor had been ill ten months.

Our Divisional meeting in Fairmont was one of the best on record and largest attendance. Miss Pearle Johnson of China was the leading spirit and deeply stirred our hearts.

In the 471 societies, with 7,435 members, and 150 churches yet unenlisted in W. M. U. work, we face great opportunity and responsibility.

We have gone forward in number of tithers from 661 to 842. In mission study classes from 188 to 257. Fifty-six new societies were organized in 1931, lost 18, net gain 33.

To our faithful Superintendents we are deeply grateful, and to them we commit the great and joyful task before us.

May our eyes be opened to look on the fields at home and abroad; our hearts be opened with a burning desire to bring the world to Christ, and our purses be opened to finance the Kingdom of God. Looking unto Him who never fails, let us undertake great things for Him, even the seemingly impossible, spending much time in prayer and an ever-increasing faith in Jesus Christ.

Respectfully submitted,

MACY COX,
Divisional Superintendent.

A Memorial Service for our departed members was held, Miss Elsie K. Hunter reading the names, and Mrs. J. J. Roddick, of Winston-Salem, paying tribute to Mrs. Lila L. Henry, former Superintendent of the Charlotte Division. A memorial song was sung by Mrs. Wilber Clark, of Greensboro, after which the audience was asked to stand in silent tribute to those who have passed on. Prayer by Mrs. S. J. Beaker, Leaksville.

Recommendations of the Executive Committee were presented by Mrs. Edna R. Harris. These were adopted on motion.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE FOR THE YEAR 1932

Watchword—Jesus shall reign. Luke 1:32.
Hymn—Jesus Shall Reign Where'er the Sun.

The Executive Committee of the Woman's Missionary Union recommends for the year 1932:

I. Plan of Work. That we adopt the Plan of Work of the Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention, as the plan of work for the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, and we urge that every one of our organizations endeavor to carry out, as far as possible, all the methods and suggestions presented in this plan.

II. Gifts. That we take as our financial aim $250,000.00, $200,000.00 of this to be the Co-operative Program, and $50,000.00 for special offerings.

For the W. M. U. Training School—Current Expenses	$1,000.00
For the W. M. U. Training School—Scholarship Fund	1,400.00
For the W. M. U. Training School—
Louis Castlebury Memorial Scholarship	200.00
	$1,600.00
For the Margaret Educational Fund	1,000.00
For Expense Fund, N. C. Woman's Missionary Union	2,000.00

These amounts are to be included in the $250,000.00.

That we ask each society to observe the special seasons of prayer and offerings, and that an effort be made to get all the women in the society and in the church to have a part in these offerings.

That we ask every organization to send in a contribution each quarter, as societies which fail to contribute to missions are dropped from our roll and fail to receive literature.

That each Associational Superintendent apportion to each society in her Association its proportionate part of the amount suggested for the Association as soon as she receives the apportionment from headquarters. That she shall encourage the societies to raise the amounts asked of them, and that she shall keep informed as to their success or failure in reaching their quotas.

That $1,200.00 of Heck Memorial Offering be given for maintenance of the Poor in School for Bible Women in Canton, China, of which Mrs. Vallie Page Greene is principal; and that the remainder of the offering be given to the Convention Debt.

III. Enlargement and Enlistment. Recognizing that there are a large number of churches in our State in which we have no missionary organizations, and that many churches fail to maintain a full graded organization, we would urge definite, well-planned effort to remedy this situation. To this end, we would suggest a survey on the part of each Association as to its own status, and that plans be made at the Annual Associational meeting for some constructive work along this line.

IV. Convention Debt. While the effort made by the Woman's Missionary Union the past year to raise a definite part of the Convention Debt failed of its objective, we would ask that all members of our Woman's Missionary Union endeavor to share in the efforts made by their churches to raise funds to meet these debts that are proving such a handicap to our mission work. While the purpose of our Woman's Missionary Union is to raise funds for missions, and to that purpose we must always give first place in our aims and activities, we feel that the present debt situation demands the co-operation of all of our members.

V. Prayer. Because of conditions at home, and the serious situation facing our missionaries on some of our fields, as well as the decreasing gifts to missions, which present a problem not only to our boards, but to all mission boards at this time, we would urge every woman in our organization not only to observe the stated seasons of prayer and offerings, but as individuals to pray earnestly and continuously to Him who alone can give us power to meet the responsibilities and the obligations of the present hour.

VI. Stewardship. That we urge our women to give unto God what is His in tithes and offerings, believing that this is plainly the Scriptural teaching. Furthermore, that we most heartily endorse the campaign to secure four-month tithers, now being put on by our Southern W. M. U., and urge our leaders to emphasize and co-operate in every way possible.

Address, "World Witnessing in the Homeland," Miss Emma Leachman, Field Worker Home Mission Board, Atlanta, Ga. Closing prayer, Mrs. J. Clyde Turner, Greensboro.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MARCH 2

The evening session, with Mrs. W. N. Jones, President, presiding, was opened by singing our hymn for the year, "Jesus Shall Reign." The devotional was led by Mrs. W. O. Blount, of Wilson. Anthem by the choir.

Messages from our mission fields were brought by the following representatives:

China, Mrs. P. W. Hamlett; Roumania, Mrs. Dan Hurley; Chile, Miss Marjorie Spence; Africa, Dr. George Green.

"All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name" was sung as the closing hymn, followed by prayer by Rev. J. Clyde Turner, Greensboro.

THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH 3

The session, with Mrs. F. D. Lethco, Vice-President, of Charlotte, presiding, was opened with hymn, "Come Thou Almighty King." The devotional, led by Mrs. A. C. Cree, of Salisbury, was opened with prayer followed by reading Joshua 1:8, 9 and Isaiah 43:10.

Minutes of Wednesday afternoon meeting were read and approved.

The following reports were presented:

Trustee of Baptist Hospital, Mrs. J. J. Roddick, Winston-Salem.

REPORT OF NORTH CAROLINA BAPTIST HOSPITAL

Another volume is about to be added to history of our work in the ministry of healing: A brief review of the work of our Hospital reveals the great work that is being done in the interest of suffering humanity. Since it opened its doors more than 19,000 have been admitted for treatment. Of this number many fathers and mothers have been sent to their homes and families rejoicing in their restoration to health.

The past year with its bank failures, its short crops and economic depression—have all combined to make the number of needy sick far greater than any year in the history of our work, so that the Baptist Hospital has been compelled to respond to a greater number of calls for help from a far more extended territory than ever before. And yet—it has been for us the year of the greatest opportunity—for 2,975 patients were cared for during the past year. These came from every part of our State; 1,944 of this number received help either as full charity or part pay patients. These patients spent 24,000 days in the Hospital, an average of 8 days per patient. Nearly two-thirds of these days were free days for which the Hospital received no pay! So we can readily appreciate the burden that has rested on this Institution during the past year. In 1928 we reported 500 charity patients had come to us for treatment—this year there were nearly 2,000, revealing to us the extensive work that is being done in His Name.

The Mother's Day offering this year, as in all previous years, was a substantial proof of our women's love and loyalty to the sick, for regardless of the many sacrifices that it was necessary to make in so many homes we received a little more than $15,000 as our Mother's Day offering. Added to that we received $14,156 from the Duke Foundation Fund. But the total cost of charity work was a little over $59,750, leaving more than 30 thousand dollars worth of charity work that was unprovided for. So we may readily appreciate the tremendous burden it has been necessary for the Hospital to carry if we met the needs of this trying year. But one of the most encouraging features of our past year's work was the fact that over one thousand churches responded to the appeal for a Mother's Day offering. This was nearly 300 more than had ever responded before. Surely they were divinely inspired to help us meet this great crisis we faced, for while the offerings were smaller, the united effort—the small gifts made it possible to save many lives.

Another most gratifying phase of our work that has aided us in keeping our Institution out of debt was that where communities and churches were able they would raise $1.50 per day to aid us in caring for the patient they had sent to the Hospital. That is not a large amount for one church or community, but means much to the Hospital that is caring for 1,944 patients. It means thousands of dollars and will be a great aid that we may extend our service to a larger number of needy sufferers, and helps us to meet the great financial burdens we face in this day of stress and strain and day of uncertainty.

One of the most interesting features of our year's work has been the large number of white gifts that have been sent in from every part of our State. With the unusual demands that we have faced we scarcely know how we would have been able to supply all the needs of linen if it had not been for the wonderful response of our women from the mountains to the sea. The packages rolled in from every organization of our W. M. U. The following articles were received: Sheets 65, spreads 13, bath towels 639, huck towels 656, pillow cases 422, wash cloths 558, soap 31 cakes, cup towels 138, hot water bottle covers 71, dresser covers 75, bedside table covers 161, table napkins 97, yards of domestic 195, tray covers 82, patient's gowns 15; and The Baptist Hospital Auxiliary comprising all the Baptist women of Winston-Salem, under the wise leadership of Mrs. E. L. Davis, has contributed much cheer and comfort to the patients of our Hospital. For each Sabbath morning some text or souvenir is placed on the patient's tray as a reminder of love and sympathy. Also on Thanksgiving and Christmas the patients are again remembered by fruits and such things as will bring them cheer in their days of waiting and suffering. Also at this time each student nurse is remembered with some small gift as a token of appreciation for their loving and faithful services during the year. It would indeed be difficult to estimate in dollars and cents what this organization has contributed to the Hospital, as for the past years all sewing and mending has been distributed to the various churches and the women have so lovingly aided us in this way.

The added small things have made possible the large amount of charity service we have been able to render. Much valuable equipment has added to the efficiency of service. The Radium presented to our Hospital as a gift from the President of the Board of Trustees has already saved many lives. We have also added a Bronchoscope for throat treatment to remove foreign matter from the lungs. Another wonderful machine added to our equipment is an instrument for glandular trouble. Only a few have been installed in this country and we feel that we are fortunate to be among the first to be able to remove the perils of this disease so common to older men.

Realizing that we have had a wonderful year in spite of many financial handicaps, we would take courage and enter another year with even greater faith and determination to serve in the day of trouble. And we would plead with you to remember that the work is yours, and that the amount of work we do next year must be determined by the response we receive on Mother's Day. Will you not hear the cry of the needy sufferer on this day, and lay it on the heart of your church and Sunday School?

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. J. J. RODDICK,
Trustee Baptist Hospital.

Margaret Educational Fund, Miss Alva Lawrence, Raleigh. Mrs. J. S. Farmer, of Raleigh, spoke to this report, and presented Miss Helen Dozier, of Japan, one of our Margaret Fund students now at Meredith College.

MARGARET FUND REPORT

Woman's Missionary Union has two objects, we often term them specials, which are her very own. The W. M. U. Training School and the Margaret Fund are entirely dependent upon her for support. The Margaret Fund should not hold second place in the hearts of women of the Southland for only mothers can understand fully the courage necessary to cause a mother to sail away to some foreign country leaving her children behind. Her confidence in the love, gifts and prayers of Woman's Missionary Union enables her to make this sacrifice.

Seventy-seven Margaret Fund students received scholarships for 1931-32. It is gratifying that all applicants were granted the $300.00 requested. This scholarship is furnished four years provided students are worthy. In case of those reared in Catholic countries and those preparing themselves for definite missionary work an additional two-years' scholarship is granted. Five of the seventy-seven students were assigned to North Carolina. We feel a special interest in Nancy McDaniel and Helen Dozier of Meredith who are Juniors this year. They have had many tokens of your love and affection. Our boys are perhaps not so well known and we must remember that they too need mothering. Bryson Tipton is at Duke University and Hubert Baker and Moses McCall are at Mars Hill. One father wrote, "I appreciate your interest in my son. He is finding it difficult to find himself and to adapt himself to his new surroundings." Picture your boy restless and dissatisfied in his home but sadder still is the unhappy boy far from loved ones and friends. May we especially adopt these young people in 1932 and help to take away the pang of separation.

A Digest of States' Reports is read at our Southern Baptist meeting. Happy am I that our report for 1931 excels that of '30. Although we are still under our goal of $1,000.00, last year our love gifts to Margaret Fund amounted to $880.63, to Margaret Memorial gifts were $87.00 (gifts of $2.00 or more honoring one by that name), totaling $967.63. Georgia led the states in the matter of Margaret Fund gifts last year—giving $1,534.53 as love gifts and $618.75 Margaret Memorials. This fact shows us that we are far short of our best for this object.

Our W. M. U. Calendar of Prayer published in Royal Service and The Window carries the names of our Margaret Fund students. Pray definitely for these young people that they may be strengthened in the faith of their fathers as they prepare themselves for usefulness here and abroad, and read the Margaret Fund page in Royal Service that you may be informed of the work and touched by the needs.

Respectfully submitted,

ALVA LAWRENCE,
North Carolina Member of Margaret Fund Committee.

W. M. U. Training School Trustee, Mrs. R. N. Simms, Raleigh. Mrs. Forrest C. Feezor, of Raleigh, a former Training School girl, recognized the Training School girls in the audience, and Miss Vera Ruth, former Training School Alumnae president, spoke a few words of appreciation for the school. Mrs. Feezor read a message from Miss Mary Currin, who is now attending the school. Miss Helen Dozier, who is a prospective student, expressed her thanks for the opportunities the Training School offers.

Mrs. Simms made a motion that the North Carolina women again make it possible for the Training School to furnish chicken for the Easter dinner. Carried.

REPORT OF W. M. U. TRAINING SCHOOL

Our Training School is this year celebrating its twenty-fifth anniversary. We rejoice with her and delight to give praise for all her splendid accomplishments.

Birthdays cause us to do three things. We find ourselves reminiscent over the accomplishment of the years gone by, we like to take stock of our present status, and celebrate the occasion with gifts and good wishes for future growth.

It rejoices our hearts to look back over the history of our school—her founding by far-sighted and noble hearted Louisville women, her adoption by our W. M. U. Convention, and her marvelous years of growth and usefulness under the wise leadership of her wise and gifted presidents—Mrs. Maud R. McLure, sixteen years; Mrs. Janie Cree Bose, now Mrs. J. H. Anderson, seven years; and the present incumbent, Miss Carrie U. Littlejohn. We would remember Mrs. Eager,

Mrs. Lowndes, the fine faculty and Board of Managers, our own Miss Heck, all of whom have contributed so largely to her success.

Many delightful people and occasions might be recalled if time permitted.

This twenty-five year old child of the Convention today is worthy of the love and sacrifices our women have given her. Beautiful and serene amid the complex life of today she stands, a guiding star for those who seek to know His way, veritably a lamp unto our feet. Her children are scattered abroad over the lands of the earth carrying the Light in many dark places, strengthening and comforting wherever they are.

As we come to take stock today, we find the school in good condition in spite of bank failures, depression and the like. Both faculty and students agreed on rigid economy, with quite a pleasing reduction resulting.

The enrollment is naturally smaller—a total of sixty-six boarding students being registered. Splendid quality helps to make up for lack of quantity however, and no better work has ever been done, nor a sweeter spirit prevailed.

All of the usual forms of work have been carried on. Naturally the Good-Will Center has been of even greater service than usual this trying year.

North Carolina sent ten girls this past fall. Nine of these were on scholarship and one is paying her own way. They have been active and helpful in the life of the School and are making good students.

Our women have contributed $1,495.12 this past year.

From co-operative program we received $338.38—a total of $1,833.50.

When we celebrate a loved one's birthday with gifts we try to bring gifts that are beautiful, needed and useful. So with our gifts to the Training School this year, may we not include all three kinds. Many wonderful gifts are being sent by women from all over the South. Surely every woman here and in our State will want to make a love gift on this twenty-fifth birthday. You will vote to provide the chickens for the Easter dinner, we are sure. Many of you will send some gifts from your work-basket or pantries and farms, and all of you we trust will make your Training School offering this summer the best you have ever given. Best of all, give her your love and continual thought and prayer. Let us pray throughout the year that God will keep her and bless her that she may increasingly show forth his love and continue to bless the world through countless hundreds of students going out to carry the message of salvation to a lost world.

Respectfully,

MRS. R. N. SIMMS,
Training School Trustee.

Mrs. F. D. Lethco, presiding officer, read a message of greeting from the Southwestern Training School at Fort Worth, Texas. Mrs. C. E. Maddry moved that this message be acknowledged.

Hymn, "Lead On, O King Eternal."

Address, "The Temple Eternal", Mrs. Carter Wright, Roanoke, Ala., former President of the W. M. U., of Alabama; Field Worker, Woman's Missionary Union, Southern Baptist Convention.

Song, Mrs. Wilber Clark, Greensboro.

Closing devotional, Rev. J. Clyde Turner, Greensboro, using John 14:31, Arise let us go hence.

Enrollment, Delegates, 547; visitors, 414; total, 961.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, MARCH 3

The session with Mrs. W. N. Jones presiding opened at two o'clock with hymn, "Oh Zion Haste." The devotional was led by Miss Marjorie Spence, of Chile, reading First Corinthians 13. Song, Mrs. H. E. Armstrong, Greensboro. Minutes of morning session read and approved. Report of enrollment, delegates, 527; visitors, 481; total, 1,008.

Report of the Stewardship Chairman, Mrs. J. G. Boomhour, presented by Miss Elsie K. Hunter. Adopted.

REPORT OF STEWARDSHIP CHAIRMAN

In spite of the fact that 1931 has been a difficult year in many respects, our work in stewardship has gone steadily forward. Through our trying experiences there has come a deepening conviction that "It is required of a steward that he be found faithful."

We are gratified that there has been a constantly growing interest and enthusiasm in our stewardship organization and education. The many requests for literature and for helpful suggestions indicate this fact.

We are gratified, also, that there has been a substantial increase in the number of tithers. We do not think that the total of 4,800 tithers is as large as it should have been. However, there is an increase of nearly a thousand over the previous year.

This work requires persistent and unceasing effort on the part of every Stewardship Chairman. What would we think of a school or college where teachers and professors depend on an occasional talk to their students rather than the use of text books and careful study for their knowledge of the subject in hand? How can we hope to be well informed on this vital subject unless we make use of the means necessary?

Therefore, we suggest that we make use of the helpful literature which is available, both for the women and young people's organizations. We suggest also that some phase of stewardship be presented as a part of our monthly program. We recommend further the forming of Tithers' Fellowship Leagues.

As we take a backward look over the year's work, we rejoice that there are many devoted helpers who have caught the vision. And yet in the words of the old German proverb, we are led to say: "So little done, so much to do." We pray that there may be a real awakening among our women and young people to the importance of emphasizing the stewardship of life and possessions. "Ye are not your own for ye are bought with a price."

Respectfuly submitted,

MRS. J. G. BOOMHOUR,
Chairman Stewardship.

Report of Personal Service Chairman, Mrs. C. L. Greaves. presented by Mrs. Edna R. Harris. Adopted.

REPORT OF PERSONAL SERVICE

In reading the chronicle of the first missionaries to New Zealand, it is said it was the daily Christian lives of these godly men and women which broke down opposition and won the natives to Christianity so that in one generation people who formerly enjoyed feasts of roasted human flesh now sat in chapels singing and praying to God. Many people in our land will be won to God if we show in our lives the power of God interpreted in messages of human sympathy and acts of brotherly love to the extent which Jesus showed. Truly our religion is measured by our relation to others. Christians should so color the social order that it will reflect the ideals of Jesus Christ and make popular the Golden Rule.

Our reports reveal much Personal Service work done, yet not nearly so much as should be done, though I feel that much is not reported. Will you not improve your work this year by having a Personal Service Committee and reporting faithfully? Cannot many societies launch out into the six lines of work that our Southern Personal Service Chairman is emphasizing, viz: 1. Work for illiterates. The more than 200,000 adult illiterates in our State are a challenge to our people. 2. Making Personal Service effective in our rural societies. Cannot our rural people look around in their communities and find a needed work which they can do? 3. Increasing mission Sunday-schools so that every person may be accessible to schools of Bible study. 4. Work among negroes. Surely every W. M. S. can find some way to help our colored friends. 5. Soul winning is the aim and purpose of all Personal Service and we must keep this ever uppermost. 6. There is ever present need for temperance teaching and we are called to combat the foes of temperance by teaching our young and making public sentiment among adults.

RESOLUTIONS

The Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina in its forty-second annual session wishes to thank all the people of Greensboro for their gracious hospitality shown to us in innumerable ways.

A year ago every Baptist woman in the State was glad when they said unto us, "let us go unto the house of the Lord" in Greensboro, for well did we know from past experience the warm-hearted welcome which awaited us. The high and holy experiences of these last days will go with us as a cherished memory leading us on to greater things in missionary endeavor. We are truly grateful to those who arranged for us the deeply spiritual program which it has been our privilege to enjoy.

Dr. Feezor spoke to us in a wonderful missionary sermon from the text "He shall not fail."

Mrs. W. N. Jones, our beloved president, using as the subject for her annual message our watchword for the year, "He shall reign", stirred our hearts to great depths.

Mrs. Taul White convinced us that the Christian church must take its stand against war.

Miss Emma Leachman sounded a clarion call, "God is Alive", and has a message and a program for each one of us.

Mrs. Carter Wright melted our hearts as she talked about building the "Temple Eternal," and each one resolved to spend more time finding stones to place in the Temple Eternal.

To Dr. Turner, the beloved pastor of this church whose very presence is a benediction; to those women who led the devotionals; to our missionaries whom we always delight to hear, we express the love of our hearts.

To Mrs. Chas. Moseley, the president of the hostess society we are grateful for a cordial and sincere welcome message. She indeed opened her heart to us. We knew it was filled with love and joy and that she spoke to each one of us.

For the wise planning and careful consideration of the comfort of every delegate we are indebted to Mrs. Nettie Hoge, the untiring and efficient Chairman of the Hospitality Committee and her co-workers, and to Mrs. L. C. Vaughn, Chairman of Transportation Committee and her co-workers, also to the Boy Scouts for their good turns, and to the young ladies who so beautifully served us as ushers.

To Mrs. W. H. McKeever, Mrs. Whitt R. Stone, Mrs. W. H. Malone, Mrs. J. J. Andoe, Mrs. W. L. Carter, Mrs. Moody Stroud, Mrs. Vander Liles, Mrs. Edgar T. Howell, Mrs. Ben Spencer, Mrs. O. E. Lee,—to everyone who in any way contributed to our comfort, convenience, or pleasure, we extend heartfelt thanks.

To Mrs. F. O. Chrysler, who was in charge of the pageant we are indebted for a beautiful program. For the sweet messages in music and flowers we are deeply grateful. We also want to thank the Greensboro papers for giving our meeting publicity.

We want to pledge allegiance anew to our State W. M. U. officers. We wish them to feel our love and loyal support.

Finally, we thank God for the privilege of being "laborers together with Him", and we pray that we may be mightily used in bringing the reign of Jesus in the hearts of men.

Therefore be it resolved:

First, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the Minutes of this organization;

Second, That a copy be sent to the local papers.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. A. J. FRANKLIN, Bryson City,
